

Dear DCC Students,

I am thrilled you've chosen to be part of the Danville Community College family. Whether this is your first semester, a continuation of your studies, or a bold new step, you are joining a community that believes in your potential and is committed to your success.

At DCC, you're not just earning credits, you're preparing for a future full of possibilities. Every class, skill, and challenge will build your confidence and open new opportunities in your career and life.

We know balancing school, work, and family can be challenging, but your commitment speaks volumes about your determination. Our faculty, staff, and support services are here to guide and encourage you every step of the way. So, lean into this moment. Use your resources, get involved, ask questions, and believe in the difference you can make. Remember, you are not alone. We are proud to walk beside you as you achieve great things at DCC and beyond.

Go Knights!
